i decided to write this book of life experiences for many different reasons first of all i wanted to challenge myself out of all the challenges i faced in life sharing this story was by far the most demanding often times i confronted challenges with all words and no action i never worked to my full potential in school i was content with being a c student even though i knew i was capable of more writing this book gave me the power to live out my dreams and face my fears i just hope to inspire others so that they may follow their dreams too everyone has dreams especially those living in despair searching for a way out this story illustrates the idea that people are not always subjected to becoming products of their environment my grandmother was a hustler which made my mother a hustler too the only way i avoided incarceration and death was by taking those concepts and crafting my very own artistic hustle contact the author for speaking engagements and book signings jondavidk.com jondavidk@gmail.com twitter.com/jondavidk facebook.com/jondavidk
